

hit_

Viviana Zappa

italian nationality | 1.69cm height

blue eyes | grey hair

Viviana Zappa is an Italian actress, born in Piacenza, Italy, known for her versatility and international career.

She currently lives in Locarno, Switzerland, and is also based in Barcelona, Spain. She is fluent in seven languages — Italian (her mother tongue), English, Spanish, French, Portuguese, Catalan and German — which allows her to perform roles in multiple languages and cultural contexts.

In cinema, Viviana has built a diverse career, with roles in films such as Principessa (2008), in which she played Faustina, and La Costa Errante (2004), a Spanish drama production. More recently, she appeared in the film L'home dels nassos (2023), directed by Abigail Schaaff.

On television, Viviana has stood out in several successful series. In In from the Cold (2022), she played Ainhoa Pérez, and in One Trillion Dollars (2023), she portrayed a judge. She also took part in Alter Ego (2022), playing Silvia Giovanoli. In addition, she had a notable role in Com si fos ahir (2017–2025), a Catalan TV3 dramedy series, where she played Rosa.

In theatre, Viviana has strong training and experience. She studied the Meisner Technique with Javier Galitó-Cava in Barcelona and has taken part in various stage productions, including Il colloquio (2025–2026), Habitación de matrimonio (2021–2022), El millor per als nostres fills (2019) and La edad de la ciruela (2019).

In addition to her artistic career, Viviana is also an English teacher and has a diverse training background that includes acting workshops in French, English and Portuguese.

Languages

Italian | Spanish | English | French | Brazilian Portuguese | German | Catalan

Skills

Singing | Salsa | Tap Dancing | Swimming | Yoga | Boxing