hit_

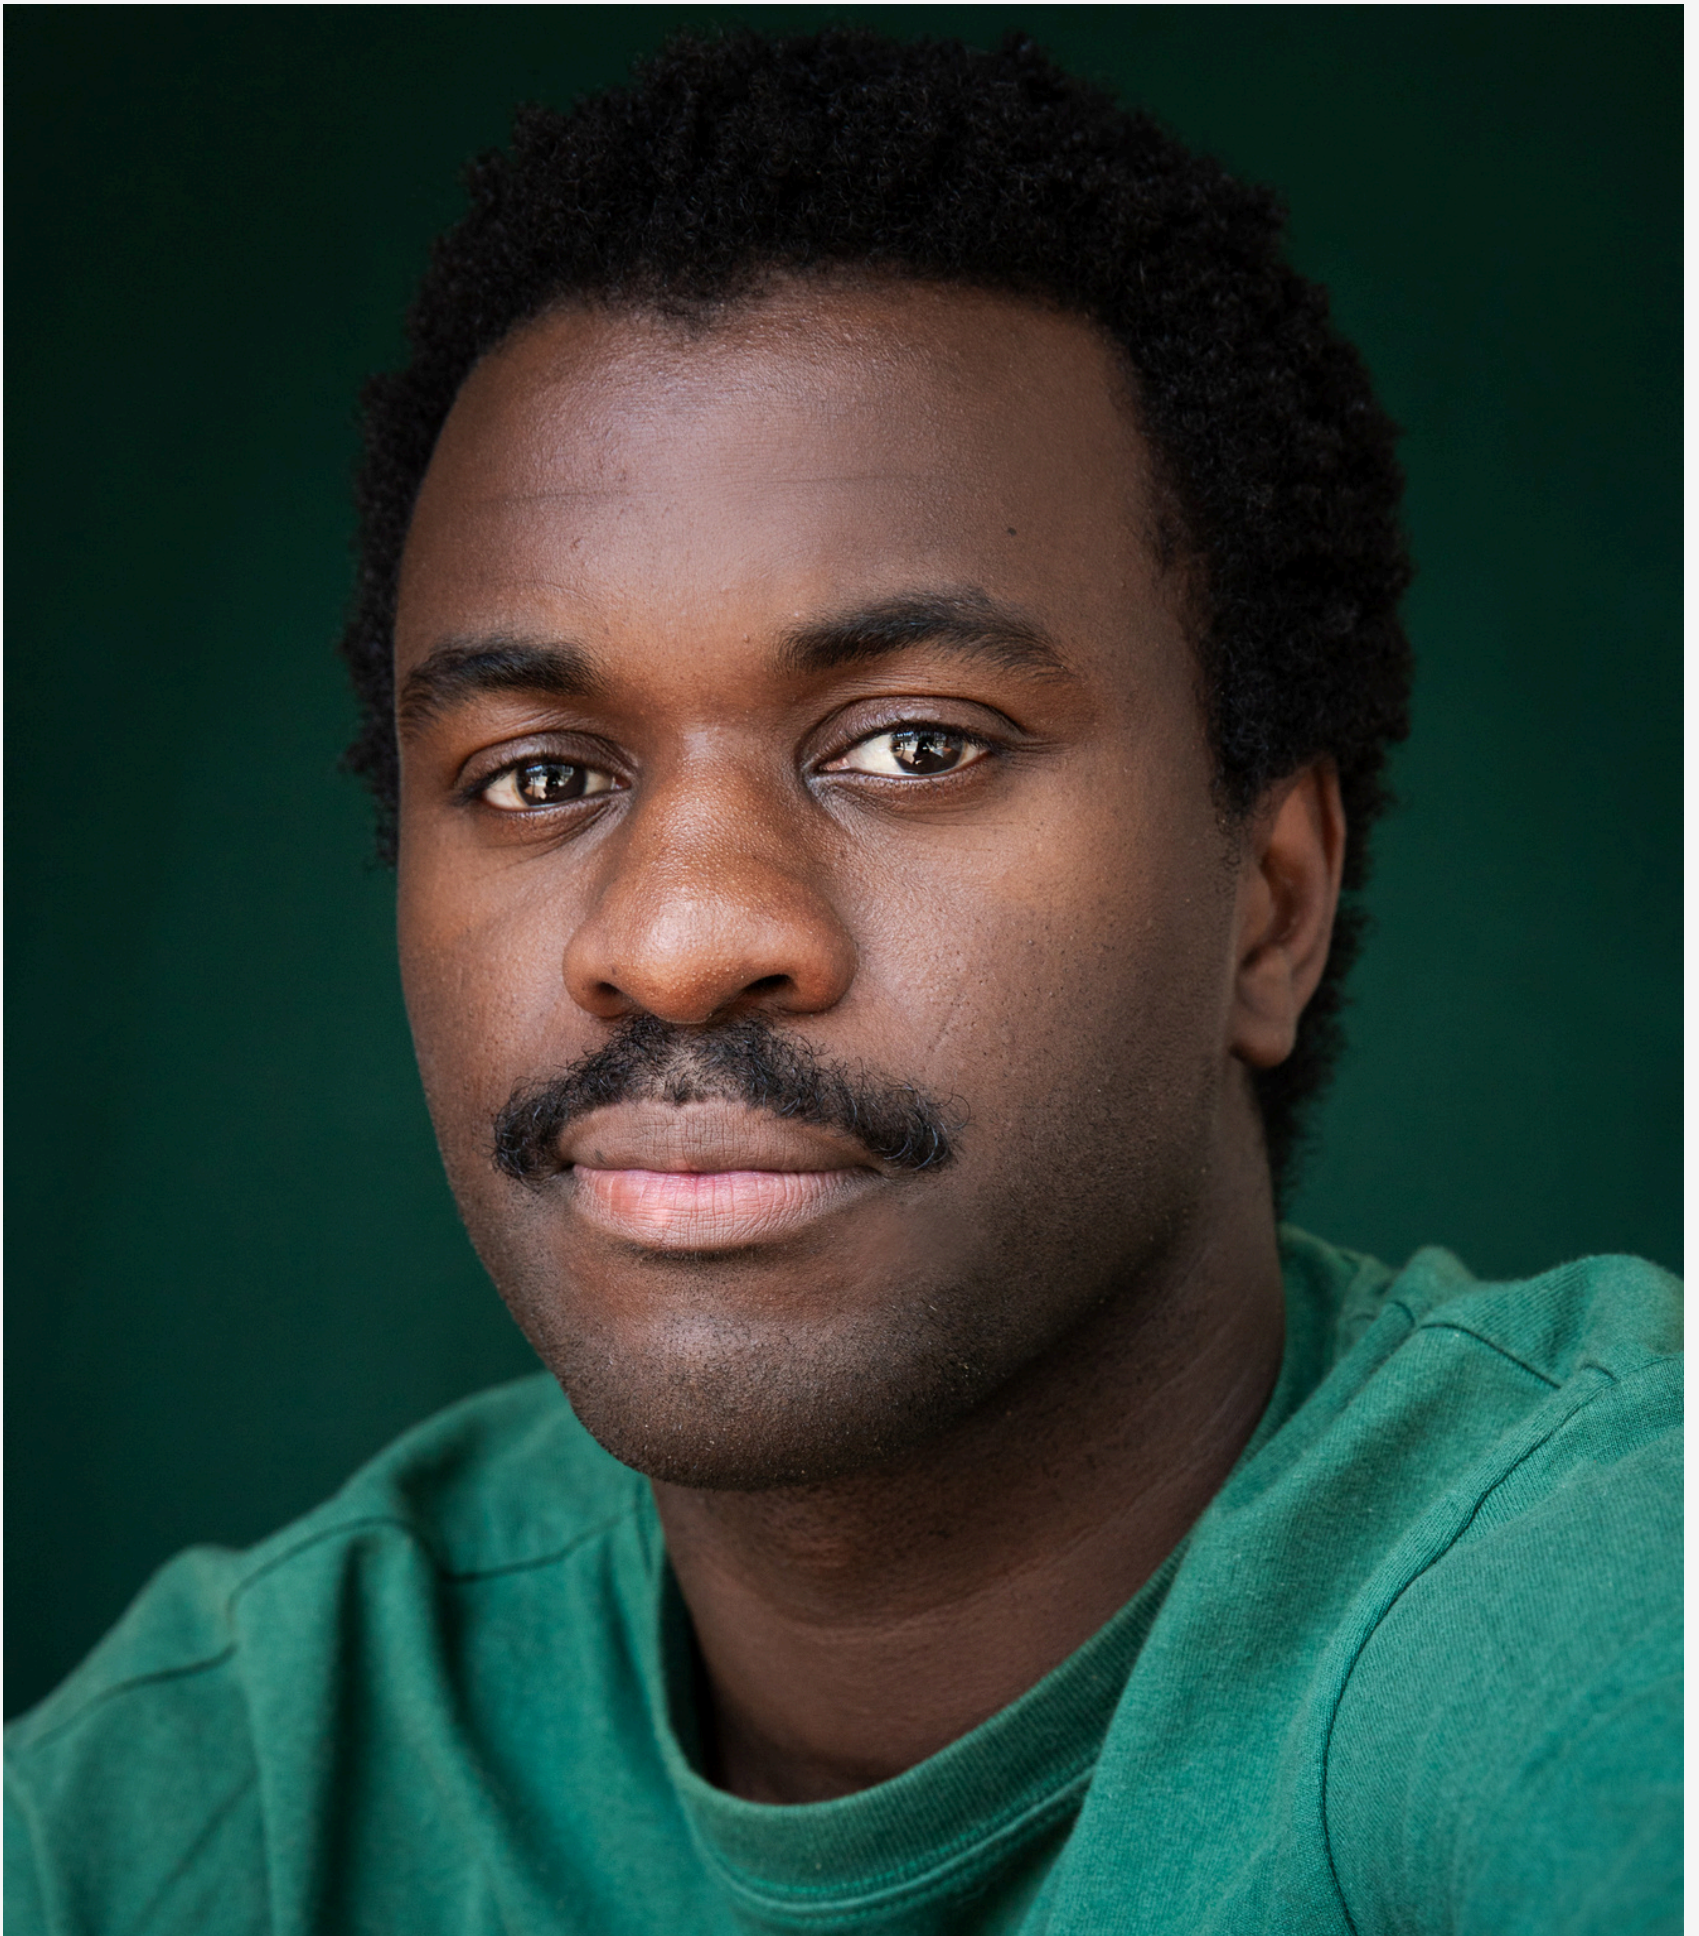

Carlos Pereira

são tomé and portuguese nationality | 1.89cm height

brown eyes | black hair

Carlos Pereira is a multifaceted artist, known as a presenter, comedian, writer and dreamer. Born in São Tomé and living in Portugal, he is recognised for his unique and humorous approach across various media.

With a remarkable career in television, Carlos has held significant roles in numerous productions. In 2020, he brought his creativity and talent to the series Barman on RTP Play, where he was responsible for the original concept, script and performance. On Juro Que Aconteceu, a talk show broadcast on RTP África between 2022 and 2023, Carlos served as the creator, executive producer and presenter, consolidating his reputation as a charismatic communicator.

He also shone in the RTP 1 series Erro 404 (2024), demonstrating his versatility as an actor. On Bem Vindos, a talk show aired on RTP África from 2021 to 2023, and on SIC's Levanta-te e Ri, where he performed as a stand-up comedian, Carlos kept audiences entertained with his humorous approach. Additionally, he appeared on 5 Para a Meia-Noite on RTP in 2020, further establishing himself as a leading comedian.

In radio, Carlos hosted Na Corda Bamba on RDP África from 2018 to 2020, extending his impact in the audiovisual field. His writing is also noteworthy, with columns and articles published in magazines and newspapers such as Revista Gerador, Comunidade Cultura e Arte, and Jornal Público.

Carlos Pereira has been recognised for his influence within the Lusophone world, being included in the POWERLIST 100 of the 100 most influential Black personalities, a testament to his impact and contribution to culture and entertainment.

With a background in Political Science and Advertising & Branding, and a special love for his dog, Carlos continues to explore new opportunities, leaving his mark on every project he undertakes. Recently, in 2025, he starred as one of the main characters in the series Novas Narrativas de Caça for RTP 1.

Languages

Portuguese | English