

hit—

Ricardo Cônti

brazilian nationality | 1.65cm height

brown eyes | brown hair

Ricardo Cônti is a teacher of the acting course “The Power of the Camera” at CAL and on the Postgraduate Programme in Acting for Television and Film at FETES University. He is the videomaker for the Raiz Educação Group, responsible for media coverage across the group’s schools. He held the position of casting researcher at TV Globo for three years and, since 2015, has been working as an assistant director and acting coach, both within and outside the network, delivering his workshop “The Power of the Camera” throughout Brazil and in Portugal.

He works in television and film productions as a director and casting coach, and is particularly recognised for his work with children, in programmes such as Gente Inocente, TV Xuxa and TV Globo’s Christmas Special – winner of the Golden Lion in Cannes. He was an assistant teacher at Teatro Tablado, created the acting course at Teatro Miguel Falabella together with Leandro Hassum, and gives workshops in various cities across Brazil and Portugal.

Languages

English | Portuguese | Spanish

Skills

Soccer | Surfing | Skateboarding | Guitar | Percussion